

Name _____ Changes by the river-The Conquest

Read the web page about the conquest to do the work on this sheet.

Much of the conquest of California happened away from the river. Take John Fremont's point of view and tell what you think he thought about the river.

What do you think John Sutter felt about the river?

“The War with Mexico produced positive change for the United States.”

Use details from the webpage information, including the map at the bottom, to support that statement.

How did the American River change John Sutter's life? Use the descriptor, “change is necessary for growth” to tell about the way the river changed Sutter's life.
